

Jenkins Announcements – Wednesday, March 15, 2017

NJHS members: Your shirts are here!! If you would like to wear them tomorrow for the Talent show please pick them up from Ms. Tinucci today or tomorrow. We will also meet for our March meeting this Friday at 7:45 am. See you at the talent show Thursday evening at 5:30 pm to set up!!

Congratulations to Paulina Burke who took 2nd place this past weekend in the War of the Roses tournament, which is an all girls' competitive wrestling series. Way to go Paulina!

Student Council, we will be meeting tomorrow at 8:00 am in Mr. Krueger's room.

Club Volleyball (C-squad) will have its informational meeting on Friday, March 17th, in Ms. Adams' room F006 immediately after school! If you are planning to play in Club Volleyball, you must to attend this meeting. If you cannot attend the meeting, you will need to see Ms. Adams this week before the meeting date to receive information and to have your name included on the team rosters.

Jaguars – Do You Love to Dance? Doherty High School is hosting a dance clinic on Saturday, March 18th from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. The dance clinic is open to kindergarten through high school D11 students. The cost is $35.00, check or cash, which includes a t-shirt and goodie bag. Please pick up a flyer from the front office for detailed information.

Congratulations to Dillon Michael – who not only scored the most points in a single given day compared to all student at Jenkins Middle School yesterday using Achieve 3000, she also scored the most points in the State of Colorado. Dillon, please see Mrs. Rauer in the office to receive your certificates and prizes. You are an AWESOME Jaguar Dillon!